

Coast Live Oak

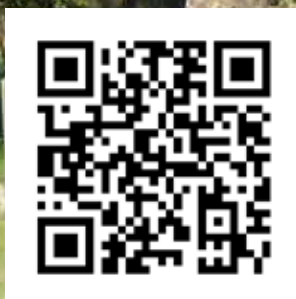

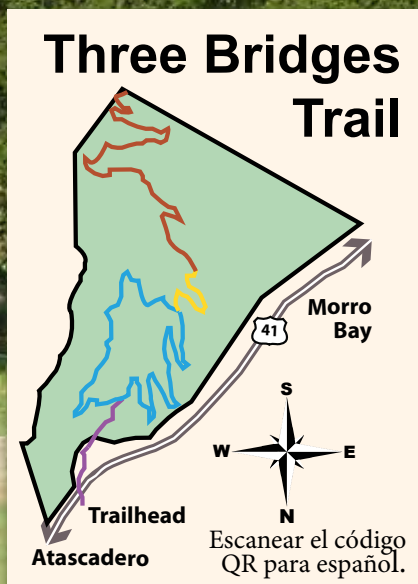

Quercus agrifolia

An evergreen oak that may attain an age of 250 years. They have a thick bark that insulates them from low-intensity fires. Forty five percent of this preserve is Coast Live Oak Woodland.

Photo by Neal Kramer

Photo by Deb Dight

Espanol

ATASCADERO LAND
PRESERVATION SOCIETY