

Atascadero Formation Sedimentary Sandstone

Late Cretaceous, 66 -100 million years old

The angular-edged rocks of this naturally occurring formation indicate weathering occurred once rocks were exposed. You can compare this to the rounded rock that was weathered below ground, found further up the trail.

Photo by Mike Orvis

